January 22, 2014

The Board of Regents met in session at 11:08 a.m. on Wednesday, January 22, 2014, in the School of Medicine Zadeck Conference Center, Room G-221, Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center, 1501 Kings Highway, Shreveport, Louisiana. Before the Committee meetings began this morning, Regent Mark Abraham was sworn in by Dr. Uma Subramanian, Deputy Commissioner for Legal and External Affairs, as a member of the Executive Committee for 2014.

Chair W. Clinton Rasberry, Jr. called the meeting to order. Executive Assistant Carolyn Blanchard called the roll and a quorum was established.

Present for the meeting were:
W. Clinton Rasberry, Jr., Chair
Albert Sam II, Secretary
Mark Abraham
Brooksie Bonvillain
Joel Dupré
Pamela Egan
Joseph Farr
Chris Gorman
Robert Levy
Richard Lipsey
Joseph Wiley

Absent from the meeting were:
Charlotte Bollinger
Raymond Brandt
William Fenstermaker, Vice Chair
Edward Markle
Roy Martin III

Chair Rasberry recognized and thanked Senator Buffington and Senator Peacock for attending the meeting today. He also thanked members of the Southern University Board of Supervisors, Dr. Leon Tarver and Dr. Willie Hendricks, and Dr. John George, member of the LSU Board of Supervisors, for attending.

HIGHER EDUCATION PRESENTATIONS
Chair Rasberry invited the four chancellors in the region to present highlights of their campuses. The accomplishments of each institution in the region, as pointed out by the head of the institution, are as follows.

Dr. Jim Henderson, Chancellor, Bossier Parish Community College:

- Completed over 34 bilateral articulation agreements in the last three years;
- Recognized as one of the top five fastest growing community colleges in the nation in its size category;
- Grown by 85% in the last four years;
- Designated as a national center for academic excellence in cyber security;
- Created programs that will fill the workforce needs of the state;
- Graduated its third class of nurses this past December; and
- Emphasized that the formula must be a critical component going forward if the institution will grow and meet the needs of the employers.

Dr. Paul Sisson, Interim Chancellor, Louisiana State University at Shreveport:

- Customized articulation agreements with BPCC and SUSLA;
- Founded 10 scholarships by the Noel Foundation for graduates of BPCC and SUSLA to attend LSU-S;
- Partnered with SUSLA in regional/state/federal grant applications;
- Partnered with 16 high schools in 5 parishes for dual enrollment;
- Updated graduate degree program content and delivery;
- Increased in enrollment in graduate programs;
- Approval (preliminary) granted by SACSCOC in December 2013 for change to Level V institution;
- Admitted first cohort of 22 students in Ed.D. in Leadership Studies for Spring 2014; and
- Committed to providing excellence in education at an affordable cost.

Dr. Ray Belton, Chancellor, Southern University at Shreveport:

- Focused on the entire community with three centers of excellence;
- Recognized as one of the best performing two-year institutions of its size from data collected by a survey of 322 other two-year campuses;
- No negative financial aid/federal findings for the past four years;
- Launched two new on-line programs;
- Ranked as 88th in production of African-American students by Community College Week;
- Enrolled the largest number of students this year with over 3,000 students
- Collaborative efforts with the Baton Rouge and New Orleans campuses; and
- Plans for an independent school of nursing in downtown Shreveport this spring
Dr. Robert Barish, Chancellor, Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center at Shreveport:

- Louisiana has the 13th oldest physician population in the United States. Almost 30% of practicing physicians in Louisiana now are over 60 years of age;
- The Louisiana Health Care Commission reports that the state needs to train more than 360 primary care physicians annually to meet the demand created by retiring physicians;
- 67% of students trained at LSUHSC-S stay in Louisiana as practicing physicians;
- 99% of students at LSUHSC-S are from Louisiana;
- Five students at LSUHSC-S will receive residency training in one of the most competitive specialties in United States. There were 285 students across the nation competing for 144 slots and all five of LSUHSC-S students were accepted; and
- LSUSHC-S needs to grow. Medical applications across the state are going up. The medical schools need more resources, more faculty, and more space.

Chair Rasberry thanked Chancellor Barish and his staff for hosting the Regents in Shreveport. Chancellor Barish expressed his appreciation to the Board of Regents for visiting the LSU Health Sciences Center at Shreveport.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Chair Rasberry noted that no written requests were received for public comments and asked whether the audience had any comments at the time. There were none.

APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES OF JANUARY 9, 2014

On motion of Regent Dupré, seconded by Regent Lipsey, the Board voted unanimously to approve the minutes of January 9, 2014.

REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS BY THE COMMISSIONER OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Commissioner of Higher Education Jim Purcell said he was appreciative of the Governor and his staff providing a funding increase for higher education and a new workforce incentive fund. He noted that Chair Rasberry was quoted in a recent Inside Higher Education report about state higher education budgets rebounding. Dr. Purcell touched on a few points in the Grapevine report which shows that forty states increased funding to higher education in 2014. He reviewed a Postsecondary Education Opportunity article that showed Louisiana was second to Delaware in the redirection of Pell Grant recipients toward community colleges from 2005-2012. He spoke briefly regarding the improvement of the education pipeline through K-12 reforms based on collaborative efforts with the Board of Regents.
